Two negroes, Fred King and Des Montgomery, were hung at Iyversburg Monday, by an infuriated mob of 1,000 citizens, because of a brutal assault upon Miss Elise Arnold, the 18 year old daughter of Dr. Arnold, of Iyversburg. The young girl was found in a pool of her own blood, and so dangerously wounded by cuts from a hatchet, that she has never recovered consciousness sufficiently to explain the assault. It is said the negroes entered the house for the purpose of robbery, and that Miss Arnold being aroused when they were in her room, made resistance with the above terrible results.

This claim of other cough remedies to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectively set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Devine Co., Gardiner, Ky. He says: I had kept adding to a cold and cough during the winter of 1897, taking every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help. Until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Housh and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My cough and bronchial trouble were very sore at this time but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since all my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines. THE SLAYER ESCAPED.

A Bullet Went through a Man and Killed a Boy—Kind Hint.

Williamsburg, Ky., Feb. 18. A tragedy occurred when a slave at Jolliott, Ky., at a late hour Saturday night, the result of an old grudge between two merrymen, struck and killed a boy.

Mr. J. D. Price, the well known livery and hotel man, died Thursday night last, of heart disease. Mr. Price was jovial and good humored as late as 11 o'clock and by 12 o'clock was a corpse. The cause of his sudden death was heart trouble. He was a kind hearted, popular man, and sincere sorrow was felt over his sudden death.

The sad intelligence was received in Hickman, this week, of the death of Mrs. Lizzie Storer, wife of G. W. Storer, who died in Shreveport, La., Thursday, the 14th inst. Mrs. Storer was a daughter of the venerable Mrs. Marinda Wilson, and sister of E. F. and G. S. Wilson, and Miss Belle Wilson. All of Mrs. Storer's childhood and young womanhood days were passed in and near Hickman, and she is well remembered by most of our older citizens. She was an excellent and true woman, and her memory is felt over her death.

GEO. T. MACHAN, Hickman, Ky.

Dr. Warlick Cowgill, a well known oculist, of Paducah, was assaulted on Saturday night, Feb. 17th, by a mob of about 100 men. Dr. Cowgill stands high socially and professionally, and many believe that he is blackmailing science. Those who know Dr. Cowgill best will not believe his guilty of any wrongful conduct in the matter.

The woman publishes a card in the Paducah News concerning Dr. Cowgill in toto, and that she was under a misapprehension.

HANDS OFF.

America Will Not Wage Further War.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The United States Government is facing a serious crisis in China, owing to the announcement of the purpose of Field Marshal Cooch, of the Chinese Government, to offer offensive campaign. Gen. Chaffee has been invited to join in the expedition, which is to be mobilized on a larger scale than anything attempted in China since the original march to Peking. The General so informed the War Department to-day, and the officials of the State Department have been advised of the situation.

This German movement is viewed with absolute distrust here, for it is feared that it requires an immediate decision by the United States Government upon its whole line of policy toward the Chinese question.

A petition is in circulation in this county asking the County Court to order an election in November as to a No Fence Law. The petition originated in the Lodgion precinct, and has been numerously signed, and will be circulated over all parts of the county. The petition we learn only applies to cattle sheep and hogs, under 5 months old, and it is claimed that this will save in fencing many thousands of dollars.

THAT DIRTY LINEN

The Courier in referring last week to the "washing of dirty linen," sold in the Fulton Legislative Convention, had no personal allusion to any candidate, or to any individual member of that convention, but only to the fact that from reports the convention was an ugly, disorderly, mobbish affair, and the Courier is not now of sufficient partisan bias to attempt to fix the blame for such conditions upon any special ones. But he the responsibility upon whom it may, conservative Democrats are not taking kindly to such affairs. Time may fix the responsibility, as unfortunately, the whole affair promises to engross the pending race to the exclusion of all other issues. It is this fact that caused the Courier to regret the "split" at Fulton, but it was the "disorderly convention" that caused it to speak of "dirty linen needing to be washed."

A HICKMAN MAN.

Some years ago an affable and popular young clerk was employed at Mr. James Luke's jewelry store, Charles G. Schenker. Little by little he saved his earnings, worked hard, attending to business with exceeding diligence, exhibiting always the utmost politeness and circumspection, earning the good will and golden opinions of all with whom he came in contact, till now he is a capitalist in his own right, owning one of the finest jewelry stores in Kentucky, located in Hickman, and filled with several thousand dollars worth of fine goods. Schenker is a typical young American; he is a living illustration of what good honest work and treating everybody just right will lead to. Others can go and do likewise and attain the same success and popularity. —Troy Banner.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

ST. VALENTINE'S DANCE.

The young people of Hickman enjoyed a most delightful dance at Assembly Hall in the Lakeside Hotel Thursday night, St. Valentine's Day. Good music, and a happy time greeted the participants, and chief among the pleasures of the evening was the exchange of Valentines, some comic, some sentimental, and many artistic in design and finish. Among the happy participants were:

Dr. Donahoe, Miss Rose Case; John Dillon, Miss Jessie Isler; L. D. Simmons, Miss Mabel Goulder; Mit Shaw, Miss Maud Frazier; Len Shaw, Miss Marie Egerton and Miss Nora Parker; Charlie Travis, Miss Mabel French; Chester Bondurant, Miss Beside French; Ward Luten, Miss Mary Anderson; Gus Herrin, Miss Lita Farris; Thian Rogers, Mrs. Nannie Kingman; Kenneth Anderson, Miss Nellie Rogers; W. S. Ellison and wife; F. S. Moore and wife.

MARRIED.

In this county, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John W. Ballew, on Thursday evening, the 14th, by Elder John R. Williams, Mr. L. Wheeler and Miss Ida Ballew.

The bride is one of the most lovable and best educated young ladies in Fulton county, and belongs to one of our best families, and the groom is said to be well worth the jewel he has won. Mutual joy and happiness is wished for the young couple.

Sad, Sad Deaths.

The Courier has been called upon to note no sadder event than the deaths of Mr. John Carter and Miss Ann Carter, brother and sister, who died the same day, Thursday of last week, at the family home, this county. They were brother and sister of our dear friend and well known countyman, Lum Carter. Miss Ann died in the morning at 8 o'clock, and her brother in the evening at 4 o'clock. The former was about 68 years of age, and the latter 73. No people were more highly respected, or more beloved by all who knew them. Words cannot be found to express our deep sorrow because of this sad affliction. They were buried at Mt. Zion cemetery, the Rev. Bradfield and Hilliard conducting the funeral services. God be with this dear family in their sad affliction.

FOUR MEN HURT.
The scaffold used in putting up the metal ceiling in the Methodist church at Dresden, fell Saturday, and six men went down with it. The accident was caused by the breaking of a truss, and the men were precipitated a distance of fully twenty feet. A white man named Rowance, from Greenfield, was badly hurt about the spine, and it is thought he will be a cripple for life. Bob Ellis, of Martin, had his ankle broken, and one negro sustained a fracture of two ribs. Another negro is badly cut about the face.

People who believe that the electric light is hurtful to the eyes may be reassured. The medical faculty of the University of Heidelberg, it is announced, have made a very interesting report upon the effect of incandescent lights, gas or electric, on the eyes. After having carefully considered all arguments for and against the conclusion is that the incandescent lights are not harmful, and further, that electric lights are especially to be recommended for public halls and places of amusement, because they do not contain oxygen.

MORGAN'S CHECK
FOR $23,000.00.
One check representing $23,071.04 was deposited in the First National Bank Saturday by J. Pierpont Morgan in connection with the recent acquisition of a controlling interest in the Central Railway of New Jersey by himself and associates. This is one of the largest checks ever drawn, and there was some gossip to the effect that it might cause a disturbance. Another notable check was that drawn by the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. for $55,000,000 in connection with the Third Avenue deal.

AYRES THE NOMINEE
The Fulton County Democratic Committee met in Hickman Tuesday, and we learn by unanimous vote re-affirmed their conviction of the fair nomination of Mott Ayres for Representative. The Fulton County Committee has 8 members, and the Hickman County Committee 12, and our information that 15 of the Joint Committee, endorse Ayres' nomination as regular. It is believed that this will settle the action of the State Committee.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.
AT CITY HALL.

A temperance lecture at City Hall, to-night, by E. P. Crowe, B. S. Of this distinguished editor, minister and lecturer, Mr. Ralph Hickman thus speaks: "My friend, Rev. E. P. Crowe, is I understand about to enter the lecture field, and I take this opportunity of placing a slight testimonial upon his already long list. In the past fifteen years he has made a great many engagements for me, and in spending Sunday at his appointment I have had several opportunities of hearing him speak and preach. His discourses were clearly the productions of a thoroughly trained mind. The effect produced by his eloquence and the skillful delivery of his discourses placed him in my estimation among the platform leaders. If he succeeds as well upon the lecture platform as I have heard him in the pulpit, he will be a star in a short time."

MODERNIZED
I have been making some change in my store rooms, and find them overstocked in many lines of good, seasonable goods, and will sell them out at a sacrifice, to reduce the stock. All goods in Dress Goods Department that are shop worn will be sold regardless of cost. Big bargains in this line, if you want to save money.
I have now a large lot of Ladie's, Men's, and Children's Button Shoes, which must be sold, and I offer them far below original cost. They are first class, and will soon be all sold. Call and get first choice.
